Be Hit By Cupid's Arrow At Banyan Tree Bangkok

There many ways to say I love you, but some are just more delicious than others. And, a Valentine's Day celebration at one of our award winning restaurants, will ensure you are hit by cupid's arrow or that the spirit of romance is kept alive. Plus, if you tire of staring into your loved one's eyes, we've got some of the city's most dramatic views to enjoy! However, we hope that your love blossoms, just like the long stemmed rose which we will present to each lady.

Vertigo

Dine al fresco with the angels, in a setting made for romance and enjoy a glass of Champagne followed by five gourmand courses. You never know, it could be the time for the perfect proposal....

Baht 14,000 +++ per couple

Bai Yun

Where more appropriate to spend the most romantic evening of the year than at Bai Yun, where five elegantly prepared and sumptuous courses of Cantonese seafood awaits? Baht 8,000 +++ per couple

Pier59

Oysters were documented as an aphrodisiac by the Romans in the second century A.D and since that time have been considered the food of love. The subdued blue hues radiating from our "aquarium in the sky", create an ambiance conducive to love and five courses of delectable cuisine will be the ultimate way to woo your lover. The menu features both fresh oysters and Kobe beef. Baht 8,000++ per couple or Baht 10,000++ per couple including paired wines

Saffron

For those that like it hot and spicy, we have the definitive way to tantalize your taste buds. Start with an aperitif of sparkling wine at Latitude Lounge and then let exotic and erotic aromas create the mood for romance at Saffron, where shared platters of signature Thai cuisine make for intimate moments. Baht 6,000++ per couple

Apsara

Sail away into the sunset and enjoy bobbing around on the waters of the Chao Phraya with all its fascinating sights and sounds. The evening will start with a cocktail and then five spectacular courses of Thai cuisine. Baht 7,000++ per couple
